Railway Notes.

Railread men report an unusual number of bums traveling over the country just now, says an exchange. The bum is a species of animal that thrives no matter how short the grass crop or how hard the winter. Money he never has and walking he detests, yet he is north enjoy a good sppetite and perfect health? He is truly wonderfully made.

It has been calculated that Loop,000 ounds of railroad advertising matter is attributed in the United States every eek at a cost of ten cents a pound. The lithographers get a large slice of the pie. The present era of extravagrant advertising dates back only a few years. where bids fair to rival the newspapers in tonnage. To those who think railroad advertising comes cheaply it is only necessary to instance the fact that the Missouri Pacific calendars for 1891 are said to have cost more than 'twenty-000 in the company's surplus.
